52. Surah At Tur (The Mount) Verses: 49; Makki; Paragraphs: 3

Period of Revelation. From the internal evidence of the subject matter it appears that this Surah too was revealed in the same stage of the Holy Prophet's life at Makkah in which the Surah Adh-Dhariyat was revealed. While going through it one can clearly feel that during the period of its revelation the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was being showered with objections and accusations but there is no evidence yet to show that severe persecution of the Muslims had started.

Main Theme: The Hereafter.

﴿﴾ إِنَّ عَذَابَ رَبِّكَ لَوَاقِعٌ

The punishment of your Lord is sure to fall.

Paragraph 1: V44-49

The Holy Prophet (pbuh) has been given the instruction that he should persistently continue giving his invitation and preaching his message in spite of the accusations and objections of his opponents and enemies.

he has also been consoled, as if to say "Your Lord has not left you alone, Therefore, endure every hardship patiently and glorify the Praises of your Lord.

Paragraph 1: V29-43

While criticizing Quraish chiefs' for their attitude and conduct, Allah has put them certain questions, one after the other, each of which is either an answer to some objection of theirs, or a criticism of some error. Then, it has been said that it would absolutely be of no avail to show them a miracle in order to convince them of his Prophethood, for they were such stubborn people as would misinterpret anything they were shown only to avoid affirming the faith.

Paragraph 1: V1-28

The Hereafter; arguments for its possibility, necessity and occurrence.

However, swearing an oath by some realities and signs which testify to the Hereafter, it has been stated most emphatically that it will surely come to pass, and none has the power to prevent its occurrence.
